Our Practical content covers guides and recommendations on the finest products and services — such as restaurants, hotels, shopping destinations, medical, cosmetic, schools, yachts and car rentals.

READERSHIP

Baroness Olga Roh of Inchdrewer interviewing British artist Michael Craig-Martin for RR

Our readership and target audience consists of Russian speakers living in France, Switzerland, and Great Britain, as well as Russian-speaking visitors. This demographic accounts for a large percentage of consumers in the luxury goods and services industry and exponential growth of the Russian-speaking presence in Europe means Russian Roulette has an ever-expanding pool of potential readers with high levels of disposable income. In 2016 it is estimated Russian spending abroad will reach €50 billion, and in France alone Russian tourists spend on average €500 million each year. In the United Kingdom, one-fifth of the properties that cost over 8 million pounds are bought by Russian customers. Russian visitors make up 34% of all luxury boutique customers in Cannes, Monte Carlo, Saint-Tropez and Nice.

Sylvie Burnet: L.RAPHAEL is a Swiss beauty brand with spas around the world: in Cannes, Geneva, New York, Beverly Hills, Almaty. We have always been popular with the Russian community in Monaco, Cannes, Saint-Tropez and those who travel in the Côte d'Azur on holiday. We started working with Russian Roulette in 2016 and subsequently we saw Russian visitors to the beauty spa L.RAPHAEL in the Hotel Martinez, Cannes after reading our article in the magazine.

Fabienne Blumfields: Blumfields is an antique and collectable jewellery dealer. We sell at exhibitions in London and Paris: by appointment; via blumfields.com and via 1 stdibs.com. Our specialty is unique and rare collectable jewellery signed by Cartier, Van Cleef & Arpels, Boucheron, Buccellati, Marchak, Boivin, Jean Desprès, amongst others. As an expert in antique jewellery I am part of the board of acquisition at the Paris Museum "Les Arts Decoratifs". Russian clients are important for Blumfields as they express refinement and culture, which is what Blumfields is about. I decided for representation in RR when Mrs Olga Mayr became editor-in-chief, three years ago. Her publication is a mix of the most beautiful things on Earth ~ arts, knowledge, humor and glamour. Such are our clients — this is where Blumfields want to be seen. As a result, we have increased the number of Russian clients in the last few years. Also Blumfields has sold on 1stdips. com a unique pair of pendant earrings signed "Buccellati". It was seen first in RR!

Thierry Macquet: I have two businesses: one is a luxury bespoke travel concierge service (www.experientialpursuits.com) and the other is a luxury business development and PR company (www.lgmconnect.com). I have had a few Russian clients with my travel concierge company, as well as many more Russians as clients of companies for which I handle PR. Last year I helped a long time family friend, HH Princess Olga Romanoff, to launch her biography, as the Romanovs and my mother's family have been close friends for many generations. For my travel company, I cater for Russians that like to mix luxury with authentic experiences. It is important to note over the years I have had Russian clients, mostly living outside of Russia. I started working with Russian Roulette in 2017. It is still difficult to measure if this partnership increased business dramatically, but I do think the magazine has a high profile image and is a superb vector for communication.

Eliza Ridvanska: I have been running my own beautician practice for 15 years (http://www.eliizabeauty.co.uk). My first degree however was in anestesiology-reanimation. Currently I am finishing a degree in blepharoplasty, and I regularly perform injections and hardware cosmetological operations on clients. I met Olga Mayr, the editor-in-chief of Russian Roulette at the magazine's event in the Lalique boutique in London and it was there I decided to advertise with the magazine. I also stock copies of every new issue for the availability of my clients, who find it entertaining, personal and target reading. RR also brought me new clients, who come mostly from France.

Emilie Dugontier: Russian Roulette is a very nice quality magazine that has a large audience with the luxury Russian clientele. The Hôtel La Lanterne corresponds to their needs and having communicated in this magazine has allowed us to reach a new clientele and participate in our reputation.

Michèle Evrard: I am the CEO of Cosmetics27, which is a French brand of anti-ageing cosmeceuticals developed by ME SkinLab, a skin care laboratory created by Michèle Evrard. It designs formulas based on natural active ingredients that play essential role in maintaining the skin dynamic equilibrium and reinforce its natural defenses and self-regeneration capacity. The interview by Russian Roulette boosted brand awareness, reputation and sales not only for retail but all sales as well with therapists among Russian community, both in Russia and among the France and UK based Russians. The Russian Roulette reach has amazed me and its readership is highly selective, in line with for luxury brands such as ours. Thank you for your support.
